

14.1.2022

Deviations to KSE 2013 general conditions for consulting

The KSE 2013 general conditions for consulting shall apply to the contract with the following deviations:

3.2.11 Replaced in its entirety as follows:

The Consult shall have a valid liability insurance for the consulting operations

5.5.2 Shall not apply

5.6 Replaced in its entirety as follows:

The Consultant is not entitled to charge travel expenses, accommodation costs nor per diem allowances. Also travelling time is not compensated to the Consultant.

5.8.4 Text “within 21 days” in the second paragraph is replaced as follows:

“within 30 days”.

6.2.1 Replaced in its entirety as follows:

The Client is entitled to utilize materials delivered by the Consultant for another object or purpose than that specified in the contract or to allow such materials to be used by a third party. The Client is not obligated to pay additional compensation for repeated use of the material.

7.2 Modification

The Client shall not be liable for the delay and shall not have an obligation to pay liquidated damages or other remuneration for the delay to the Consultant.

7.5 First paragraph shall be replaced as follows:

If the delay or interruption in work results from circumstances beyond the control of the parties, the Client shall extend the deadline for completing the task accordingly.

The Client, however does not have an obligation to reimburse the wage costs, special compensations or other expenses resulting from such delay and / or interruption in work to the Consultant.